Red Snipes in Mist Japanese Maple

(Acer palmatum Aka Shigatatsu Sawa)

A beautiful and elegant small maple of the reticulate leaf group, spring leaves show a multitude of colors against contrasting mid-veins, turning green with tinges of purple in summer and fully red-purple in fall. Low and broadly spreading. Part shade to shade.